Opening Reception of:

“VIBRANTLY STILL”

BY SAM TOMASIELLO

Thursday, March 19, 2020

4:30 pm - 6:30 pm

Worcester Art Museum
Higgins Education Wing
55 Salisbury Street
Worcester, MA 01609

Meet the Artist:

Sam Tomasiello has been creating art from the moment he learned to hold a crayon. As an artist living with autism, he has found his voice through his art, communicating effectively through his bold use of color and vibrant aesthetic ranging from still life drawings to more abstract work. His art has been displayed in numerous galleries and community centers, and has allowed him to raise funds for autism awareness.

Exhibit Details:

On view: February 12, 2020 - May 11, 2020

About ODG@WAM:

ODG@WAM is a working studio and gallery that exhibits and celebrates the work of aspiring, emerging, and established artists with disabilities, acting as a catalyst for community convening and conversation within the museum and beyond.

This exhibit was made possible through generous support from the Greater Worcester Community Foundation, the J. Irving and Jane L. England Charitable Trust, Unibank, Webster Five Foundation, and the Mass Cultural Council.
