

Susan Swinand, All In Together III, watercolor and mixed media on paper

Nature Imagined by Susan Swinand

October 1, 2020 - February 7, 2021

In collaboration with ArtsWorcester, the Worcester Art Museum presents works by Susan Swinand, the Sally R. Bishop Prize Winner of the 2019 ArtsWorcester Biennial. Primarily a painter with a preference for water-based media and abstraction, Swinand has long found the natural world a source of inspiration. Nature Imagined explores Swinand's creative process and her drive to find balance between opposing forces in nature. By allowing the materials to take on a form of their own, Swinand taps into her subconscious to make meaning out of biomorphic shapes and fluid gestures. In so doing, Swinand creates imaginative worlds, full of contradictions, enchantment, and even a little bit of humor.

Admission to WAM is by timed ticket only. Purchase tickets here.

Virtual Artist Talk - Tuesday, November 10, 6pm

Erin Corrales-Diaz, assistant curator of American Art, talks with Susan Swinand about her work and creative process. Free.
