WORCESTER ART MUSEUM'S CONCERT FEATURES CHET WILLIAMSON ON APRIL 30

(WORCESTER, Mass., April 27, 2010) —Chet Williamson will perform jazz music with his quartet, Chromatic Blues at Worcester Art Museum on Friday, April 30 from 6:00 p.m. – 8:00 p.m.

In this concert, Williamson will showcase his noted talents on the chromatic harmonica as his band plays jump blues and standard jazz music from the Swing era.

“Chet’s knowledge and passion for this genre of music is matched by his skills on the harmonica,” said Brian Barlow, Director of Advancement at Worcester Art Museum. “By watching him perform, the audience will see an artist at work.”

This concert will be held in The Museum Café. Cash bar available. Concert attendees will have free access to selected galleries during intermission. Tickets can be purchased at the door and cost $8 for museum members and $10 for nonmembers.

Located on Salisbury St., in Worcester, Massachusetts, the Worcester Art Museum opened in 1898 and is one of America’s most respected art Museums. The Museum is world-renowned for its 35,000-piece collection of paintings, sculpture, decorative arts, photography, prints, drawings and new media.
